1 Introduction

- To-do list.

Part I: RAP (research question, answer, positioning paper in the literature); the order may vary. Part II: Description of sections' takeaways. Length from 3 to 5 pages.

David Evans' approach for an introduction:[1]

- 1–2 paragraphs. Motivate with a question or problem.

- 1 paragraph. Clearly state your research question.

- 1 paragraph. Empirical approach.

- 3–4 paragraphs. Detailed results.

- 1–3 paragraphs. Value-added relative to related literature.

- Optional paragraphs: Robustness checks, policy relevance, limitations.

- 1 paragraph. Roadmap.

For an example of a great introduction see Mankiw et al. (1992).
